

R. J. Buehler Again President

Golf and Country Club Had Successful Season

R. J. Buehler was elected to his third successive term as president at the annual meeting of the Vulcan Golf and Country Club, held in the clubhouse Wednesday evening, Jan. 21.

Other officers elected were J. M. Jamison, 1st vice-president; D. S. Paris, 2nd vice-president; C. E. Fulton, secretary-treasurer, and Ray Wellman, Cliff McAskill and Joe Keenan, executive members.

The financial statement showed that the club had enjoyed a very active and successful season in 1958. A reserve fund will be set up this year to cover debenture debt interest and principal and provide for the eventual retirement of the debentures issued. The need of storage accommodation for golf carts and bags was discussed and this matter will be investigated by the executive members and a report given at a general meeting to be held in the early spring.

Fees for active golf members were set at the same as last year: $25 for men, $15 for ladies and $5 for students, with a family membership costing $40. Fees for out-of-town members are $15 for men, $10 for ladies and $5 for students. Holders of Vulcan Golf and Country Club debentures receive a discount of 10% from these rates. Social membership fees are $10 a year.

Reports given at the meeting showed that the club was active on a year-round basis, with club parties and social evenings being held at least once a month during the winter season.

Brooks - Haverty Rites Solemnized

A quiet wedding was solemnized Saturday, Jan. 24, at the Vulcan United Church, when Colleen Mary, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Haverty of Vulcan became the bride of Gerald Kenneth Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Brooks of Fort Macleod. Rev. Donald Sharpe officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an aqua toned suit, with white accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations.

Miss Helene Lund of Mossleigh, the bridesmaid was attired in a beige, wool suit, with which she wore red accessories and a red carnation corsage.

Murray Brooks of Fort Macleod attended his brother as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception for 25 relatives and close friends was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Haverty chose for her daughter's wedding a winter-white ensemble, with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Brooks, the mother of the bride-groom, wore a wool suit-dress in a light tangerine tone, complemented by white accessories and white corsage.

The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake and a large bouquet of carnations.

After a honeymoon spent at several B.C. points, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks will take up residence at Mossleigh, where the bride is on the teaching staff of the school.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. E. Brooks, Anne Brooks and Murray Brooks and Mrs. P. Webby of Fort Macleod; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Main, Kirkcaldy; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Loucks and Louise of Drumheller; Miss Pauline Foster, Carstairs; Marvin Hendrickson, Lomond; Miss Patsy Robertson, Calgary, and Miss Marianne Burns of Lethbridge.

THE WEATHER

A short-lived Chinook brought milder weather to Southern Alberta Monday and Tuesday of this week, but a cold front rolled in Tuesday evening, bringing foggy conditions and colder weather.

Vulcan United Church In Good Financial Position At Year-end

The annual meeting of the Vulcan United Church was held in the church hall on Monday evening, Jan. 26, following a pot luck supper with members of the Women's Association in charge of the arrangements for the supper.

Rev. Donald A. Sharpe welcomed those present and opened the meeting with prayer. Retiring members of the Board of Managers, W. H. Richardson, James Berg, Earl Erickson and Chas. Northcott were reappointed to act for another three years together with A. Knive who was elected to fill the vacancy of retiring member D. Montgomery.

S. Burns and Mrs. R. Graves were reappointed to fill another three year term on the Board of Session.

Reports from all organizations of the church indicated a very successful year with many major projects being completed. The church financial statement shows that after all bills were paid a balance of $1,266.60 remains. The M. & M. Fund also shows an increase of approximately 33% over 1957. Extensive repairs and remodeling took place at the Manse and the Women's Association undertook a considerable amount of refurbishing and redecorating. The WMS were able to meet their allocation and sponsored the youth groups, namely the CGIT, Explorers, Mission Band and Baby Band, all of which report an active and worthwhile year of undertaking. The Hi-C Group which was newly organized during the past year has been a very active group of teenagers. Both the Senior and Junior Chorus have served the regular church services. Couples' Club is another active organization in the church.

The Sunday School continues to grow with the main problem being

Ladies Auxiliary

Despite the bitterly cold weather 16 members of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion answered roll call at the regular meeting held Wednesday, Jan. 21, in the Legion Hall. Mrs. Gordon Bell, the newly elected president, was in the chair and conducted the meeting, assisted by the new secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Eimer Jones.

Correspondence was light and dealt with routine business matters. New committees were named for the next three months.

Three applications for membership were received and favorably voted upon. The candidates will be notified to be at the next regular meeting for initiation. The matter of the Polio campaign was brought up and tabled until the next meeting. It was decided to hold regular card parties for the winter months, with the first one scheduled for the following evening.

At the conclusion of the business meeting lunch was served by a committee.

Pallbearers were Matt Decker, Joe Fath, Ernie Nowlin, L. S. Jones, Dick Howe and Art Ulrich. Leyden's Funeral Home, Claresholm was in charge of arrangements.

Here 50 Years, Percy J. Haslam Dies At Calgary

A well known early settler of the Vulcan district, Percy James Haslam died on Monday, Jan. 26, 1959, at Calgary, where he had been hospitalized for several weeks.

Funeral services will be held from the St. Aldhelm's Anglican Church, Vulcan, on Friday, Jan. 30, at 2:00 p.m., with Rev. R. H. Johnson officiating and interment will be made in the Vulcan cemetery.

Percy Haslam was born in the Horsham district, Sussex, England, in 1884. He came to Alberta in 1904 and worked on ranches around Calgary and High River before taking up a homestead in the Berrywater district in 1908. He farmed there until the time of his death.

He was always keenly interested and took an active part in the affairs of the community. He was a member since 1910 of the UFA and then of the FUA and was secretary of the Berrywater local of the organization for 40 years.

Mr. Haslam was also secretary of the Berrywater school district from 1918 until the closing of the school in 1941, taking an active part in all school affairs. He was secretary-treasurer of the Berrywater Community Association from its formation until the time of his death. He was a member of the Alberta Wheat Pool since it was first formed. He always found time to help further the activities of the young people of his district and this was evidenced by his interest in the work of the Berrywater 4-H Club.

Percy Haslam will be greatly missed by his neighbors and many other friends he made during his 50 years in the district.

Curling Notes

The Harris Matlock rink of Vulcan won the right to represent District 6 in the Southern Alberta Brier Playoffs at Drumheller on Feb. 5, 6, 7, by winning a four team double knockout competition in four straight games at Vulcan on Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 24-25. With Matlock on the winning foursome are John Wolfe, Gail Satkinson and Ray Wellman, while the other competing teams were Joe Keenan of Champion with L. Passoli, G. Rhodes and W. Rhodes; Smokey Jones of Milo with H. Heather, L. Northcott and J. Prentice; Ted Sney represented Blackie with D. Lindquist, T. Percival and D. Woodbridge.

In one half of the competition Vulcan won over Champion and Milo over Blackie, with Vulcan then defeating Milo in a real squeaker, last rock struggle. In the other section Blackie defeated Champion, Vulcan again defeated Milo in a close battle and then Vulcan won over Blackie to take both sections and the right to carry on in quest of curling top honors.

The two Vulcan rinks that took in the Claresholm bonspiel last week did very well with the Buster Armstrong foursome getting third prize in the Second Event and the rink of F. Mensinger, L. Haga, Bob Middleton and R. Graham clicking in two events getting second prize in the Second Event and third prize in the Third Event.

The same week at Milo the rink of Almond Hyslop, Glen Graham, K. Graham and J. Popovitch, were bringing home second prize in the First Event.

The local F.U.A. Bonspiel is off to a rousing start at the Vulcan C.C. with a total of 28 rinks competing in three events.

A Vulcan ladies' rink travelled to Brant on Saturday, Jan. 24, for a one-day spiel and won third prize in the First Event. Making up the foursome were Donna Armstrong, June Wellman, Olga Miller and Mary Haga. One ladies rink from Vulcan also took in a bonspiel at Pincher Creek last week. Those making that trip were Ethel Banks, Irma Middleton, Viola Mensinger and Gail Walker.

Andy Knive was the winner of the curling sweater raffle held at the Curling Club. In the latest raffle, R. J. Buehler was the winner of a hostess chair.

Site of Home for Aged Not Settled

A meeting of the provisional committee for the Home for the Aged was held at the County office Jan. 21, with representatives present from the County, the Town of Vulcan and the villages of Champion and Carmangay. Committee members from the other villages in the County were unable to attend.

The choosing of a suitable site for the proposed $200,000 Home was still not settled at the conclusion of the meeting. A proposed site near the hospital is not favored by the Town, as it has been wholly surveyed and sub-divided for residential construction. Some members of the committee also felt that it was too close to the hospital. Two alternative sites were proposed—one in the same "golf course" subdivision but farther west and adjacent to land that has been reserved for a proposed small park; and one on the north-west side of town.

It was decided to ask the Department of Welfare to send a representative to Vulcan to assist in choosing a suitable location. The meeting was informed that the Village of Champion has offered a site for the Home but no action was taken on the offer at this meeting.

Dorothy Porter Wed At Spokane

Dorothy Anne Porter, daughter of Mrs. Reg Stein, exchanged vows and rings with Fredrick Paul Fritz of Spokane, when Rev. Ahrendt, officiated at the ceremony in the St. Peter Lutheran Church on Saturday, Nov. 22, at 8 p.m.

The bride was wearing a winter white after five dress with empire waist and matching bolero. She wore a pink velvet head-piece and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds.

Dorothy was attended by Miss Penny Holman of Spokane, who chose an aqua wool after-five dress with black accessories, accented by a pink and white carnation bouquet.

Jerry Jones of Spokane, attended the groom as best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McDonald of Spokane, aunt and uncle of the bride.

After the reception the bride and groom spent a short honeymoon in Cour D'Alene.

The young couple are making their home in Spokane.

W.S.W.S. Meeting

Mrs. Norman Lebsack conducted the devotional period of the W.S.W.S. which was held at the home of Mrs. H. Lebsack. The meeting was opened with the hymn, "O Worship the King" and a fitting poem for the new year.

The introduction to the study, "The Middle East," was read by Mrs. D. Schierman with Mrs. N. Lebsack as guide and Mrs. E. Lebsack as assistant, the ladies were conducted on an imaginary tour of the Middle East.

Following the prayer period the business session was conducted by Mrs. C. Budd. Correspondence was dealt with and the friendship card which is to be sent to Ruby Eberhardt in India was signed by all present. The handwork project was discussed and it was decided to meet at Grace Church Feb. 3, for a sewing bee, at which time garments for a hospital in the Philippines will be sewn. It was decided to start the study "Meet Dr. Luke," with Rev. Wuertel conducting it.

The meeting was closed with the "Lord's Prayer". Mrs. H. Lebsack assisted by Mrs. E. Lebsack served a delicious lunch. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. Kaiser.

Alberta's Natural Resources

The natural resources of Alberta in their variety and scope make this country the richest province of Canada.

It has almost inexhaustible soil and a wealth of verdure. It has mountains, prairie and parklands, winding rivers and countless lakes, filled with game birds of all descriptions. Coal in abundance, natural gas that could furnish light and heat for 50 million people, immense reservoirs of petroleum and tar sands, brick-making clay, salt, sulphur, gold, radium and furs. An agricultural country, a land of pastoral farming, a land of mixed farming, of field crops, of beef and mutton and pork, of dairying and poultry, and horticulture.

A land of rich and varied resources, larger in extent than France or Germany, twice as large as Great Britain and Ireland, and only a few square miles short of the combined areas of Montana, North Dakota and Minnesota. A total area of 255,885 square miles with every variation of climate and resources from Cardston to Fort Smith.

Alberta is populated with best classes of citizens from all over the world. People from Ontario, from Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, from Iowa, Minnesota and Nebraska, from Maine and New Hampshire, from England and Ireland and Scotland and from all the countries of Europe. We have people inured to pioneering and able to cope with the challenge of farming. We have all the machinery of production, marvelous creations of ingenuity. We have trucks and automobiles, tractors and combines. We have factories. We have social, religious and political organizations of all kinds, and we have a province of homes.

Wonderful Alberta. Beset at times with problems which depress her economy, but nothing can hold her progress back for long.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor of The Advocate,
May we have the opportunity of writing a letter in your paper?
Dear Friends of the Farmer's Union of Alberta.

A new year is well on its way and may it be a happy and prosperous one for each of you.

Our first concern seems naturally to turn to the Economic Security for our farm families. It is estimated that approximately three farm families vacate their farms daily in Alberta. It behooves us, if we are engaged in agriculture and wish to maintain a rightful share of the national income, to work diligently through our farm organizations. "United We Stand and Divided We Fall."

The Farmer's Union is embarking on a policy, to bring our Economic Situation before the public in order that we can justify our position before governments and the responsibility they have towards farm people.

If any of you have not already taken out memberships in the FUA please get in touch with your local secretary or canvasser.

With a large, enthusiastic membership, with regular attendance at local meetings we can look forward to 1959 for bigger and better things.

Yours sincerely,
Margaret House and Margaret Richardson, Directors FWUA, District 12.

Drifting Control

D. T. Anderson,
Agricultural Engineer
(Lethbridge Experimental Farm)

When snow is on the ground, we sometimes feel that soil drifting is not a problem that needs attention. However, when the chinooks start to blow, the snow cover does not last long, and high winds can then begin to wreak havoc with our soil. Our experience last December and January should remind us that winter can be a time of soil drifting and that we should be prepared to take immediate action if our fields begin to drift.

This fall there were many fields in southern Alberta that lacked sufficient trash cover to provide protection from the wind. This was particularly true on irrigated land. These bare fields should be watched closely so that emergency control measures can be undertaken at the first signs of drifting to avert widespread movement of soil from the productive fields of southern Alberta.

Emergency control measures are based on three principles. The first is to provide a protective cover. Small focal points from which soil has drifted can be protected by spreading straw or manure over the area. This measure, if utilized in the early stages of drifting, can frequently prevent trouble over an entire field.

The second principle is to re-establish the cloddy structure of the surface soil. On frozen soils this can best be done with a heavy duty cultivator utilizing chisel points or shanks spaced at intervals of two to three feet. An alternative is to use a one-way disc with all but every fourth disk removed from the arbour bolt. Under non-frozen soil conditions the heavy duty cultivator or a similar implement may be used to roughen the soil and bring clods to the surface.

The third principle is to trap moving soil particles on the field. This is accomplished by listing the soil at right angles to the prevailing wind. Lister shovels spaced about three feet apart on a cultivator or the one-way later can be used for this purpose. Listing is required on fields that are covered with dunes of drifted soil, or under other conditions where it is not possible to create a lumpy soil surface.

Experience has shown that soil drifting can be brought under control on any field by the adoption of one or more of the proven remedial measures. Clods or lumps of frozen soil are subject to continuous breakdown by weathering forces. We must inspect our fields periodically throughout the remainder of this winter and next spring and be prepared to take further action whenever necessary.

Average rate of lay ...

Swift's new Sky-Hi 316 was developed especially for the poultry raiser who depends upon his laying flock for income. It combines high production with good feed conversion for real "assembly-line" efficiency. And, unlike many high producers, Swift's new Sky-Hi 316 maintains an extremely high rate of lay without sacrificing egg size.

Here is a completely new strain-cross Leghorn that excels in all characteristics of economic importance. In extensive tests of this and other strain-crosses, the Sky-Hi 316 proved superior. It had the highest egg production, earliest maturity, and greatest livability of all layers tested. During an 11-month period, the Sky-Hi 316 achieved a production of 261 eggs ... an average rate of lay of 86%! And the egg weight kept consistently high.

Order this top money-maker for your flock ... the Sky-Hi 316 is ideal for either floor or cage. Sky-Hi is a trademark of Swift Canadian Co., Limited. For the Sky-Hi 316 and other fine Swift chicks, contact

Seed Germination Tests Should Be Done Now

Producers who want to have a laboratory test of their seed for germination are reminded that now is the time to get these samples in. At present laboratories are in a good position to handle samples as they are received, which means that producers can satisfy themselves about their seed well ahead of time and can, if necessary, make replacements while good stocks are still available.

able upon which to draw. Towards spring, however, seed testing facilities are usually overtaxed and unavoidable delays may occur in getting results to the party submitting the sample.

Most of this year's samples should show up quite well from a germination standpoint but grain that has been harvested under poor weather conditions, being either tough or damaged by frost at the time, may not respond readily or fully to an ordinary germination test. Such seed, because of its condition, is likely to be in a prolonged dormant spell and it is necessary to break this spell before its full germinating capacity can be assessed. This can only be done by pre-chilling at approximately 48 degrees F which simulates the optimum conditions for germinating in the soil. This is clearly a task for the seed laboratory which has the necessary equipment to carry out this type of work.

Items of Interest in the World of Foodstuffs

This year JAPAN harvested a bumper crop of rice estimated at 575.7 million bushels. This is 7% higher than last year's harvest and represents about 97% of Japan's annual rice requirements. Since the import requirements of barley are inversely related to rice production, Japan will probably be buying less barley from Canada and other sources during the coming year.

Mrs. W. F. Leadbeater spent last week visiting with her two daughters, Helen and Ella in Calgary. Ella is affiliating for a month at the Junior Red Cross Hospital.

Birthday Celebrated

A lovely turkey supper was held in the Shouldice Community Hall in honor of Gordon Leadbeater's 22nd birthday. About 40 friends and neighbors were in attendance for the evening.

Roy King proposed a toast to Gordon and Mr. and Mrs. Leadbeater. Gordon ably responded to the toast in a few well chosen words. Following the toast everyone joined in singing "Happy Birthday." The evening was spent playing cards.

IS TREE PLANTING PART OF YOUR FARM PROGRAM?

Throughout history, lack of trees and removal of trees have resulted in loss of soil, economic hardship and often famine for nations and peoples dependent on the productivity of the soil for their existence.

In early historic times, lack of knowledge and foresight, and indifference on the part of those in authority, contributed to the recorded and known results. Today, we have, not only a knowledge of the value of trees, but technical help and planting material are also available for the asking, says John Walker, Superintendent, Indian Head Forest Nursery Station, Sask.

The planting of field shelterbelts is a practical and economical means of protecting soil against erosion by wind. Farmers who have been connected with the earliest plantings in the Experimental field shelterbelt areas at Conquest, Sask., and at Lyleton, Man., have, in their own lifetime, enjoyed significant benefits from their early tree planting efforts. Think too, what it has done to the appearance of the countryside.

An inevitable increase in Canada's population within the next generation will require a stepped-up production of food. Agricultural land is also being utilized for home-building through the expansion and growth of urban centres.

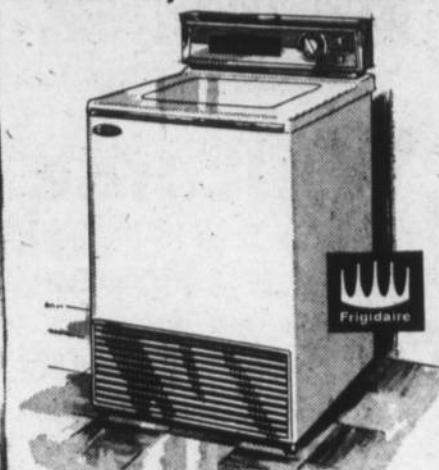

More intensive cultivation of available land is undoubtedly the answer to the challenge of increased world population, and the need of greater food supplies. In such a program of land use tree planting has earned its rightful place by reducing wind velocity, lessening soil erosion, increasing soil moisture and controlling snow movement.

The Forest Nursery Station at Indian Head, Sask., will be pleased to answer any inquiries about trees.

(Held Over From Last Week)

A short time ago while shopping in a store in Calgary a fellow came over to Fred Bertachy and laying his hand on Fred's shoulder asked "Are you Ed. Sullivan?" "Good grief no," replied Fred, "whatever gave you that idea." "Well I was down in California a while back and saw Ed. Sullivan and he looks just like you," replied the stranger. So there you are folks a fellow that looks like Ed. Sullivan right in our own back yard.

County gravel trucks have been busy for over a week now graveling roads in the extreme east of the district. Among the roads gravelled recently are the ones down to John Bartsch's farm, past Bill Klemme's and down to Leonard Voo's. All things come to those who wait if they wait long enough.

Mr. and Mrs. George Heather were visitors on Sunday to the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jacobson at Enchant.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Hingley and family of Lomond were Sunday supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Clemmons.

Mrs. Freda Prentice was a recent Calgary visitor. While in the city she was an overnight guest of Mrs. Anne Smith.

Mrs. Bartsch and her brother, Colin Campbell, were also Calgary visitors during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Armstrong, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Clemmons were visitors to Calgary last week. On the way to the city they stopped at Strathmore and picked up Mr. and Mrs. John Umscheid who made the trip to Calgary with them.

Little Allin Morseth has been staying with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Deitz, while his mother is in the Vulcan Hospital with a new baby brother for him.

Some local farmers have been hauling barley the last few days. Roads are good as there has been very little snow since late December. A few days really cold and then a day or two mild has been the weather pattern recently.

The curling enthusiasts in our midst got started on a mixed bonspiel in Milo and had to lay off for a day or two, when a chinook spoiled the ice. However they are off to bonspelling again. It's a good thing the cold weather is good for something.

Ricky and Eleanor Clemmons are over at Cluny spending a few days with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Strang Fraser.

Charollais Cattle Breeders Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Ohler of Carmangay attended a meeting for Charollais cattle breeders of Canada which took place at the Palliser Hotel in Calgary on Jan. 17. A large number were present from various points in eastern and western Canada. During the course of the day, they formed the Canadian Charollais Cattle Breeders Association of Canada. The growing interest in this type of beef cattle was voiced by the experience and opinion of various breeders from across Canada.

The highlight of the day was the interesting data given by A. Key, manager of the Turner Ranch Estate of Texas. They were one of the first in the U.S. to breed Charollais cattle and today have one of the largest and best herds there.

Among the other speakers were Gordon Green from the Family Herald Magazine, Montreal and Dr. J. A. Henderson from Guelph, Ont.

A very successful meeting concluded with an evening banquet followed by a commentary and slides on Charollais which were given by Harry Hargraves, Superintendent of Animal Husbandry at the Lethbridge Experimental Station.

CROWNEST FACT HAS TWO SIDES

(The Medicine Hat News)
The thing to remember is that the Crownest Rate (on grain) wasn't plucked out of the blue; it was tied to a federal subsidy of the Crownest line and was set up only a dozen years after the federal government granted quite a few concessions to the CPR to encourage it to build a transcontinental rail link. One concession was a grant of $25 million; another was a grant of 25 million

Of Many Things

By Ambrose Hills

ON MOONLIGHT BAY

Driving home from a country weekend, rather late, I switched on the radio. Some galoot was singing through his nose, so I changed stations, only to bring forth a raucous noise called rock 'n' roll. I leaned forward to switch the darn thing off.

Then, as if the years had suddenly rolled away, sweet music started oozing out. "We were sailing along," said the voice, "on Moonlight Bay. We could hear the voices singing... they seemed to say..."

Beside me, my wife began to hum the melody. Soon the youngsters in the back seat joined in. It was a treat.

"When I was a lad," I told the kids, "we used to sing that song around the camp fire at Rock Lake. Sometimes young folk would go out in a boat, and we could hear them singing that song. Sounds swell coming across the water. Odd that it should be back on the hit parade."

I wish I could say that the songs which followed were equally good, and that we enjoyed a sing-song all the way home. Frankly, that was about the only recording worth the wax it was engraved on. It was followed by the Eight-Legged Purple People Eater, You Send Me, and a similar barrage of infantile noise which sent my hand to the switch for silence.

Of course, it is just possible that I'm an old fuddy-duddy, and that twenty years from now folks like me will sigh with delight when Eight-Legged Purple People Eater is played. They'll sigh and say, "Ah, the old songs were the good songs." In a purple people-eater's eye they will!

I asked my teenage daughter what her favorite songs are. She named half a dozen — and virtually all were revivals, songs brought back from the good old days.

Radio disc jockeys, I think, are being led along by their noses these days. Record companies, disc pluggers, and the melody merchandisers have them in their pockets. A disc jockey will play almost anything, if told that it is one of the top ten or the top fifty.

Some day, some smart disc jockey is going to sit down and listen to all the new records and play only those he truly likes — not those that he thinks he ought to like because Billboard or Variety or some show magazine tells him so. Then radio will come into its own as an entertainment medium. People driving home at night will want to listen, and will sing along with the radio. Now even teenagers are tired of the trash.

Let's hear a little more from Moonlight Bay.

acres of Western land.
When people talk of the vast changes in freight-handling costs since 1899, it would be well also to ponder the change in the value of that CPR land in the same period.
